

Bookie's Week in Review

October 3 - 9, 2011

Well I got fairly positive feedback about my 18-point summary report. So, here goes again – the latest 18 from the Slammer Tour.

1. It's July in October. What fantastic weather we've been blessed with! When the President's Cup was held in Montreal in 2007, Johnny Miller commented at one point that Canadians could only play golf five months of the year. Obviously, he'd never met a Slammer nor understood Slammer power. That's right, we've told Mother Nature where to stick autumn/winter! Slammers rule!

2. Chilly holds on to Number One by the thinnest of margins over Woodsy.

3. According to a picture that pops up now and then at slammertour.com, IronMaiden has added a new talent to her many others: snake charmer! That's how she wins all those matches!

4. Ripzone upsets Ticklar at Cedarhill. Not that rare – they're almost even in matches.

5. The Game has one of his best outings, taking down both finalists in the Super Senior TC division, Rexall and PJ. Easy, big guy, on the oldsters!

6. Rexall beats PJ to capture the Super Senior title.

7. ProZee beats Ripzone in the B at Pine View to advance to the finals against PinSeeker.

8. Malone eagles at Pine View – his second of the year. But unfortunately he can't spell Y-o-n-g-e Street in Toronto. Nice belt, though. Ozone eagles at Edelweiss – from 98 yards out. Congrats to both!

9. Spud – from PEI but now from here so he's from away but he's here so he's not really away so... ah, forget it -- plays in his first Slammer event and not only goes 3-0 with three upsets, he also captures a skin and a dog and beats his wife – uh, in a nice way! Just don't expect any quarters under your pillow, fella – her name is ToothFairy.

10. Ticklar's little crise de whatever doesn't seem to have affected his game as he handily takes out Ozone, ProZee, and Ruskie at Edelweiss.

11. There was a rare sighting of Rulz at Edelweiss. Certainly this ranks with the recent appearance in the reeds of the Marshes of the purple-billed Carolina egret.

12. Saturday at Brockville, KidsClub out-Grumpys Grumpy with his report, offering a full analysis that will soon be for sale on amazon.ca. Most notable there is Suttly who out-Dees himself! Welcome to Cee world, buddy!

13. Also at Brockville, the majority of players didn't even break the century mark. Oh well, it's match play... you know, so score doesn't matter!

14. KidsClub clarifies that the kids' money is not for him. So KC, what about all those trips to Myrtle Beach?

15. Sunday at Casselview, IronMaiden eagles again for the second time in two weeks! She chips in from 43 yards on 12. Not only that, she exhibits a remarkable ability to get airborne!

16. HELFM. Remember him? I guess he's got other things going on in his life, so we don't see him that much – but there he was, showing up energetically at Casselview and taking down all his competition and picking up a birdie, a skin and a dog. Hey, like to see more of you on the links!

17. Best quotable: "Okay, that is better than sex! EAGLE, CHOCOLATE, SEX – in that order." Who could possibly have said that, and is she still airborne?

18. Don't Google "purple-billed Carolina egret" – I just made that up.

19. Bonus hole! On September 24, PingMan got a hole-in-one at Saint Raphael in Montreal. Number 12, 145-yards with a 7-iron. Congrats!
