

Bookie's Week in Review

April 11-17, 2011

---

April showed us its nasty side this week with rain, wind, and cool temperatures. Well, at least it didn't leave any snow! As a result, only two events took place.

But even at that, there was still a change at the top as Burnsy captures the Number One honour from Steamer on the 14th at Les Vieux Moulins and besting Malone and Chef as well. Well done, Burnsy!

Smitty in his modest way (failing to mention it in his OC summary of the event) also has a fine 3-0 day, out-duelling Boomerang, Chadderbox (or is it Chatterbox? – don't want to confuse him with a cheese!), and ProZee.

A last-minute event was arranged for Casselview on Friday and four Slammers did show up. Not surprisingly, Ticklar not only goes 3-0, but picks up three more dogs. Can anyone stop this guy from picking up another TAN Co. Doggie Cup?!

An event had been planned for The Marshes, but with 20 mm of rain being forecast, the Slammers dropped out left, right, and centre until finally even those hardy (foolish?) four were denied a chance to play as the event was cancelled. And the same with Sunday at Canadian although the sun did come out and we've certainly played in worse!

Things are looking up and hopefully the Slammers will be playing a full slate of events this week.

Bookie (#42), bookie@slammertour.com

slammertour.com